WORLD NEWS IN REVIEW

Unrest at home and abroad seemed the keynote of the current week's news. . . In London Britain called for a combination of Russia, France, Poland and herself against German aggression. . . The Lithuanian government announced that the Memel territory had been surrendered to Germany. The restoration of Memelland to Germany adds a territory along the Baltic sea of 1100 square miles to the Greater Reich of Chancellor Hitler. . . Mill workers of Westwood turned down Governor Olson's back-to-work program. Both CIO and AFL unionists voted almost three to one against the proposal. Result was not forseen. . .

Labor and agriculture clashed on the picketing issue as the California Assembly labor and capital committee gave "do pass" approval to a bill which would define the right of advertising a labor dispute and restrain cities, counties or political subdivisions from interfering with such rights.

Nicaragua's Constituent Assembly has extended the term of President Somoza for eight years beginning May 1. . . Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir John Simon announced in the House of Commons that Britain would put up 5,000,000 pounds to help stabilize Chinese currency. Not only did the money help China, but it thoroughly botched up a Japanese program to oust the Chinese dollar by Japanese-backed money.

United Air Lines Inaugurate Daily Flights Over Isle

Due to thousands of requests from persons desiring an aerial view of Treasure Island, United Air Lines recently inaugurated a series of daily flights over the Exposition grounds, it was announced by S. A. Stimpson, district traffic manager.

The flights will consume three quarters of an hour and will be made in deluxe mainliners with standard crew of captain, first officer and stewardess. In order to defray the cost of operation a nominal charge is being made, Stimpson said.

He pointed out that the primary purpose of these flights is to acquaint non-fliers with the advantages and safety of air travel.

"Because of its Exposition, its bridges, its harbor and natural beauty San Francisco is an ideal spot for such an experiment," Stimpson said.

Tanforan Attracts Turf Stars

Roman Hero and Sidney Carton, two cracking 3-year-olds, have been shipped to Tanforan from Santa Anita.

This marks the first time that the famed pink, black and white striped silks of John Hay Whitney have ever been shown in Northern California.

Mr. Whitney will keep a large division of his stable on the Pacific Coast this year, and the objective of the Tanforan campaign will be the Tanforan 3-year-old Championship at a mile and a sixteenth Saturday, April 15. This is the race that Porter's Mite captured last spring, then went on to his Eastern triumphs including the rich Belmont Futurity.

Both Topliners

Both Roman Hero and Sidney Carton are topliners, having raced against the best of their age in training. Roman Hero galloped to a convincing triumph at Santa Anita in his last start, winning a mile allowance race in 1:37 4-5. He was only out of the money twice during the winter, finishing in front of such good ones as Xalapa Clown, Smart Crack, and he showed the way to Ciencia in one outing, leading for most of the mile trip, and losing to the great filly only in the closing strides.

Sidney Carton was on the shelf all winter, after having displayed stunning form in his Eastern 2-year-old campaign last summer. He has started five times, winning two and finishinig second twice. He has whipped such good ones as Briery, Notas Sociales, Yale o' Nine and other top-notchers.

Trainer Is Bill Norton

The Whitney horses are in charge of Trainer W. J. (Bill) Norton and their arrival will round out a particularly strong 3-year-old division at the historic San Bruno course.

Oddly enough, one of the chief threats to the Whitney pair will be Shining One, their former stablemate, who was sold recently to the Circle M. Ranch of Edward S. Moore.

Set County Day at Fair For June 11

San Mateo County Day at the Golden Gate International Exposition will be Sunday, June 11.

With this decision reached at the meeting in San Mateo last week of close to 200 representatives of organizations from all parts of the Peninsula, plans are being pushed for formation of an event which will provide not only enjoyment for the county's citizens who attend but will furnish advertising of San Mateo county to fair visitors and residents in the Bay Area.

Following almost two hours of discussion of plans and the offering of suggestions by dozens of those present, George J. Davis of Millbrae, chairman of San Mateo County Day, announced that he would appoint an executive committee to sift suggestions and formulate plans for the observance.

On the committee, Davis said, would be secretaries of all chambers of commerce, including junior chambers, in the county; chairmen of exposition committees for all the cities, and representatives of unincorporated areas.

Push Harbor Plans For Coastside

Plans for construction of a Half Moon Bay harbor received further impetus recently as Senator Harry Parkman of San Mateo introduced a resolution before the State Legislature urging Congress to approve construction of a breakwater and port of refuge at Pillar Point, between Moss Beach and Half Moon Bay, on the county Coastside, the United Press reported from Sacramento.

The step is another in the efforts of the Coastside Improvement Association to develop a harbor on the San Mateo County Coast.

The request of the area for the harbor facilities has been placed before Congress by the district representative, John Z. Anderson. Attorney William Morrissey of Redwood City has only recently returned from the national capital, where he informed Anderson of the merits of the request and laid his plea for the harbor before the proper congressional authorities.

Electors Must Register To Vote For School Trustees

Attention of the public is directed to the fact that electors will not be allowed to vote at the school trustee election to be held Friday, June 2, 1939, unless they are registered on or before April 22, 1939. The announcement was made by the county superintendent of schools.

Trustees will be elected for both Jefferson Union high school and Jefferson school district at the coming election.

San Mateo Exhibit Will Feature Movies

Colored scenic motion pictures will feature San Mateo county's exhibit in the Mission Trails building at the Golden Gate International Exposition in June, according to plans discussed at a meeting of Supervisor Fred Beer and the finance and advertising committees of San Francisco Peninsula, Incorporated, in Burlingame this week.

Tentative plans call for a continuous showing of a 10-minute colored film presenting points of interest and covering all phases of the county. It is planned to have a commentator explain the various scenes.

In addition to the film there will be extensive displays of flowers, rock gardens and other special decorations during the two weeks the Mission Trails building is available for this county's exhibit.

Irene Rich Is Star of New Curran Play

Irene Rich, lovely star of stage, radio and screen, pays a personal visit to San Francisco in her new delightful romantic comedy, "A Broom For The Bride," at the Curran Theater, which opened yesterday(Thursday).

Miss Rich, one of the few celebrities of the entertainment world who has attained brilliant success behind the footlights, on the screen and in radio, will appear at the Curran for two weeks, with special bargain matinee on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

"A Broom For The Bride" is authored by Jacques Deval, distinguished French playwright who gave to the New York and London stage such celebrated successes as "Tovarich," "Her Cardboard Lover" and "Mademoiselle."

Grand romance and mad-cap humor go hand in hand in the new comedy which concerns the escapades of a handsome American playboy and his vivacious French bride, who are both forced to keep their marriage a secret under the most trying circumstances.

MARITAL MIXUP

Irene Rich appears as the mother in the comedy, who accomplishes the feat of untangling a merry mad marital mixup.

Appearing with Miss Rich in the cast are Else Argal, famous French star of the film "Club des Femmes," Gwyllyn Ford, Boyd Irwin, Kathleen Fitz and Walter Bonn.

The production is presented by Luther Greene who, in association with Homer Curran, presented "Candida" with Ann Harding in San Francisco recently and offered Nazimova on her transcontinental tour in Ibsen's "Ghosts." Kate Drain Lawson, formerly with the New York Theater Guild and for five years head designer for Katherine Cornell, designed the new smart original settings for "A Broom For The Bride."

Magnificent gowns, seven in all, newly designed by Magnin's style experts, are worn by Miss Rich in the play.

Survey Results Indicate Citizens Want Busses Here

Approximately 1,200 Local People Travel Into San Francisco Every Day

Indicative of wide-spread local interest in better transportation for this area, signed cards representing more than 2,600 local residents interested in establishment of a municipal bus line operating between Daly City and Twin Peaks tunnel were in the hands of city officials this week. More cards are being received by every mail.

Purpose of Line

Purpose of the proposed bus line is to make it possible for Daly City commuters to reach downtown S. F. by the shortest route and in the shortest possible time. It is estimated that the new municipal bus line could effect a saving of 10 to twenty minutes in traveling time from here to downtown areas.

Number of Patrons

In an attempt to determine the probable number of patrons, the Daly City council recently sent letters to every local home, explaining the suggested route. Inclosed with the letters were survey cards to be filled out and returned. Questions relative to the number of commuters to San Francisco in each household, time of travel to and from the city, and other facts vitally affecting the plan were asked.

Tabulations to date show that 1200 daily commuters have expressed their approbation of the plan and their intention of using the new line when established. Several hundred other people have indicated that they will use the line for occasional trips to San Francisco.

Trial Runs Soon

It is proposed to purchase busses soon for trial runs. According to Mayor Paul G. Selmi, definite arrangements will be made within thirty days to secure equipment, set up schedules and inaugurate service.

Responses found on returned questionnaires included such typical comments as the following: "Would like to see this go through very much," "Excellent plan," "Yes, a thousand times yes," "We sincerely hope it goes through and will give it our complete cooperation."

S. F. Supervisors Assure Junipero Extension

The unit, known as Contract 4, will be one of the most modern of highways, with divided traffic lanes and separate side roads for local traffic, according to Planning Engineer Ronald Campbell.

San Francisco took no action on the request for an appropriation of $66,000 annually for four years for the Coast road.

Report Shows 1939 As Most Healthful Year on Record

Throughout the nation 1938 was the most healthful year on record, according to Donald Renshaw, state director for the National Emergency council.

A report of the Treasury Department's Public Health service reveals that the general death rate reached a new low, and, more important, the infant mortality rate was lower than ever before reported. Deaths of mothers in childbirth and conditions attending the same were 15 per cent under the preceding year. Even the death rate from accident seemd to go down somwhat, the report shows. Also, the death rate from tuberculosis continued to decline, and was 10 per cent under the rate for the preceding year.

The successful attempt to have Daly City's name placed on that sign board is in line with chamber of commerce publicity policies.

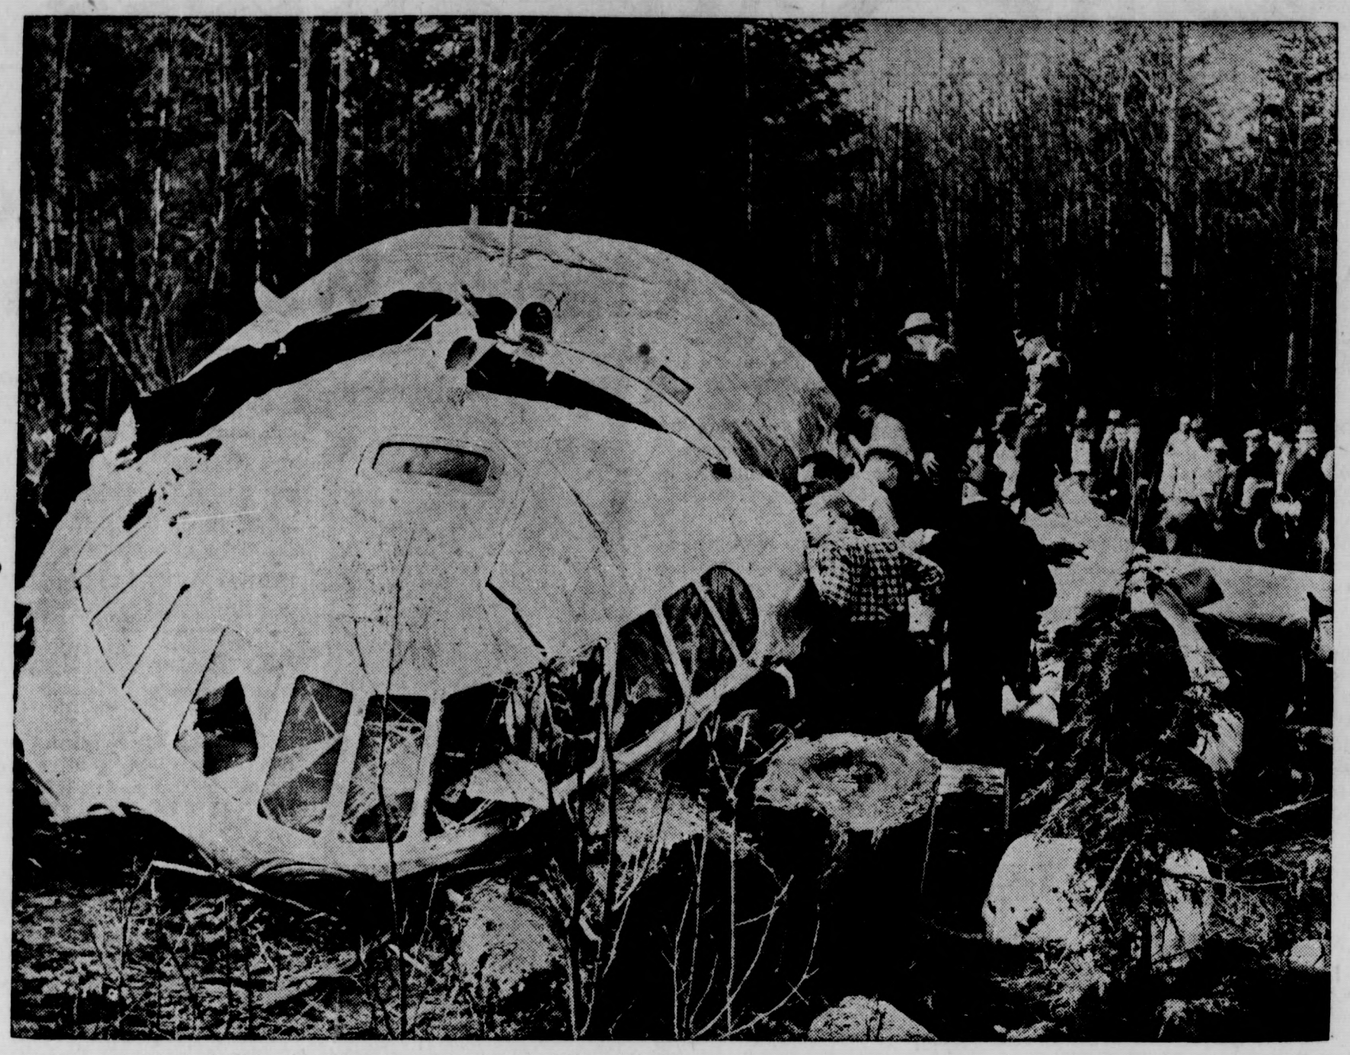
BOEING STRATOLINER CRASHES



Ten aviation experts including two Netherlands' representatives died in the terrific crash of the half-million dollar Boeing Stratoliner in the mountain foothills near Alder, southeastern Pierce county, Washington, last Saturday. The thirty-three-passenger plane, first of a fleet of ten, left Boeing Field at noon and went into a spin after part of the tail assembly fell off. Photo shows shattered nose after ship plunged into maze of stumps in ravine. Note the air speed indicator, just to right of crack in fuselage, which was thrown out of the liner's cockpit.

Sea Scouts Present Diving Demonstration

Last Thursday and Friday the Sea Scouts of Ship 149 put on a deep sea diving demonstration for the students of Jefferson Union high school. It took place in the afternoon at the time of a regular assembly. The event was staged for the boys on Thursday and for the girls on Friday because the swimming pool balcony was not large enough to accommodate both at the same time.

All of the equipment was ready beforehand and when everyone was seated, the demonstration began. Bob McCahon did the actual diving while a few of the other Sea Scouts tended the lines and the communication set. The underwater lights of the pool were turned on to give a better effect.

While the demonstration proceeded, the equipment, problems, and actions of the divers were explained along with numerous other points of interest.

It's a matter of speed to a large degree what kind of gasoline mileage the car gives, states the National Automobile club. With the throttle open wide, the consumption is vastly greater than the average driver would expect. In distance driving, overlooking this point may mean running out of gas between filling stations.

It is unwise to experiment with oils and gasolines on the motor trip, reports L. G. Evans, general service manager of the National Automobile club. Purchase of the usual brand, where possible, or at least the equal in viscosity and volatility is recommended.

Accidents Plentiful In Fair Weather

Old man weather is blamed for a great many things, but how responsible is he for automobile accidents? Statistics shows that most crashes occur not on rainy, snowy or foggy days, but in clear weather and on dry roads, reports the public safety department of the National Automobile club. When roads are wet and slippery and driving seems to be dangerous, motorists have a tendency to slow down and redouble their alertness. As a result, accidents are relatively few at such times. However, when the weather is clear and the pavement dry, drivers are tempted to speed—and it is speed and carelessness that cause accidents.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Evans, Fresno, formerly of Citrus avenue, spent the week-end as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Jewett, Ellington avenue.

Physicians Service Gains Momentum

Membership by licensed doctors of medicine in the California Physicians' service now represents every section of California, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of the new monthly prepayment plan for medical, surgical and hospital care, said today.

Because of the immediate statewide response to the invitations to licensed doctors of medicine to become professional members, it will be possible to make up the first list of professional members who will provide medical and surgical services. The list will be sent to the printer April 1, Dr. Wilbur said.

Many letters from doctors seeking additional details of the California Physicians' service plan have been received. Dr. Wilbur today urged all doctors desiring additional information on specific points to communicate with state headquarters of the service at 220 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

The plan represents ten years of study of existing plans in this and other countries by leaders in the medical profession of California. The coverage to be offered will include the good points of the plans studied. Professional membership is open to all licensed doctors of medicine in good standing in California. California Physicians' service is an independent non-profit corporation not connected with any other association.

Individual beneficiary, or patient, members will make nominal monthly payments to their group representatives, who in turn will remit in a lump sum to the California Physicians' service. When medical, surgical or hospital care becomes necessary, the beneficiary member will select the doctor and hospital of his or her own choice from among the professional members and hospitals covered by the service.

Dodge Gives Free Books On Diesel

Current interest of the transportation world in the Diesel engine is given educational aid and added impetus by an illustrated booklet, "Dodge and Diesel." Copy of the booklet, according to Pantaleoni Brothers, local Dodge dealers, will be mailed, free, to any one writing for it to the truck sales department of the Dodge Division of the Chrysler corporation, Detroit.

The company's evident desire to bring greater Diesel consciousness to the transportation fraternity as well as to the general public was motivated by the recent introduction of a Diesel-powered Dodge 3-ton truck. This new heavy-duty Dodge Diesel has been in production long enough to bear out the claim of its engineers that the highly desirable operating economies of the oil-burning engine that has no electrical ignition and no carburetor, yet starts as readily and continues to operate as reliably and flexibly as a gasoline engine, are being successfully achieved in the new Dodge Diesel.

Little More Than Name

Meanwhile the company is embarking on broad missionary work through the distribution of informative Diesel literature, the very word "Diesel" still being little more than a name to many persons.

The texts presented in "Dodge and Diesel" explain and drawings illustrate what the Diesel engine is and how it operates as compared with the conventional gasoline engine. Facts about the "Full Diesel" and the "Semi-Diesel" and between Four and Two-Cycle Diesels are set forth, as well as the manner in which the "True Diesel" engine developed by Dodge functions with a compression two and a half times as high as that of the gasoline engine, starts instantly in below-zero weather, and operates without the use of ignition coils, distributors, spark plugs, etc.

Though "Dodge and Diesel" is free for the asking, its Diesel facts are presented without excessive bias; hence the work serves its intended purpose which, we are told, is to give wider spread to an understanding of the Diesel operation and advantages.

Take Initial Steps For Bayshore Extension

Initial steps for extension of the Bayshore highway east of Thirtieth street in San Jose from its present terminus were disclosed in a notice to the board of supervisors from the State Railroad commission, reports the San Jose office of the National Automobile club.

The commission said the department of public works has been authorized to construct the Bayshore highway across the Western Pacific railroad tracks east of the Oakland highway for the Bayshore extension. Rights-of-way have already been acquired by the state for the extension.

Fine, efficient brakes have resulted in many car operators remaining ignorant of the excellent qualities of the engine as a brake, according to the general service manager of the National Automobile club. Used in combination with the brakes by leaving the clutch engaged until the car is almost to a stop, the engine proves its power in another way than pulling hills. Those who are not using it for this purpose should start doing so.

Librarian Announces Exciting Novel

An exciting new book, "The Tree of Liberty," by Elizabeth Page, has been added to the list of novels at the Daly City public library, Mrs. Jean O'Rourke, librarian, announced this week.

This book tells the thrilling story of Matthew Howard, born in a cabin in the Shenandoah valley in the busy years before the American revolution, and of the girl he loved and married, Jane Peyton, daughter of a wealthy and aristocratic family on a southern plantation.

Although they were much in love, Jane and Matthew disagreed in their idea of the democracy that was coming to life in America, and that difference was continued in their children and grandchildren. Some of the Howards made fortunes—others in the same family believed with Jefferson that America should become a great nation and worked with him to make it a free and democratic country.

"The Tree of Liberty" is a fine and impressive work that will delight both men and women.

The tool space is formed by a depression in the rear of the luggage space, where such appliances as car jack, wheel wrench, pliers, may be reached instantly, even though the compartment should be crammed with travel paraphernalia.

The Luxury Liners are shown locally by Pantaleoni Brothers, 7046-54 Mission street.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

"Reality" Is Subject

"Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsover things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." These words from Philippians comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, March 26, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Reality." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. . . . They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness" (Ps. 145:4,7).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "It is unwise to doubt if reality is in perfect harmony with God, divine Principle,—if Science, when understood and demonstrated, will destroy all discord,—since you admit that God is omnipotent; for from this premise it follows that good and its sweet concords have all-power" (p. 130).

Make-Up Should Give Pictorial Look Beauticians State

Trend Is Highly Feminized This Season for Both Daytime and Evening Wear

Gone are the days, though probably not forever, when the smartest girls were those who looked huskily athletic, tanned to the color of the proverbial nut and equal to just as much strenuous exertion as their boy friends.

Keying the new make-up charts to the season's highly feminized trend, beauticians who set cosmetic fashions have decreed a fragile and pictorial look. The new make-up gives its wearers a romantic quality that every girl in her secret heart desires.

One well known beauty house whose preparations are available in the better stores throughout the country is introducing an iridescent powder in a rose-beige shade that does all sorts of miraculous things for the skin. To go with the powder there is a luminous flame colored lipstick, a matching rouge and nail polish and a new blue eye shadow that works miracles in eye glamour.

EVENING WEAR

For evening wear the same house has a more dramatic type of make-up which has been nicely calculated to give its wearers an orchidaceous look. This beauty house insists that two types of make-up are essential to good grooming, an evening set of cosmetics and another for daytime use.

In order to be sure that your make-up is exactly correct for the new spring colors and the exciting new silhouettes it would be wise to seek the advice of your own beauty parlor. Ask your operator to study your skin, eyes and hair with relation to the new fashions and to assemble a beauty kit of creams, powders, rouge and lipstick which will be definitely yours.

As a final word of advice—after your make-up is on and you are all ready to go out allow two or three minutes for a study of yourself in a good mirror properly lighted. Otherwise, the effect that seems just right in your boudoir may develop defects when seen in the light of outdoors or in a drawing room.

Short Talks By Lloyd E. Ellis

Heaven Is Topic

"To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you." (I Pet. 1:4.)

Someone has aptly said that heaven consists of those souls who have found themselves through love. A soul that has not learned to love will not be prepared to enjoy the glories of the eternal world. Wherever heaven may be located, and whatever the state of the inhabitants, will make little difference if the soul can find eternal peace and joy.

Let not man forget that, if he shall attain to that haven of eternal bliss, his duty there will be to praise and serve his Maker forevermore. If that be true, and it is, then mortal beings should prepare themselves for that service while they are here on earth.

The wicked and abominable—those who give their lives to evil and to worldly things—would not enjoy heaven even if they should be permitted to enter there. They would not be prepared. Only those who have prepared themselves, and who have developed their abilities to enjoy the good and beautiful will be permitted to enter through the heavenly portals.

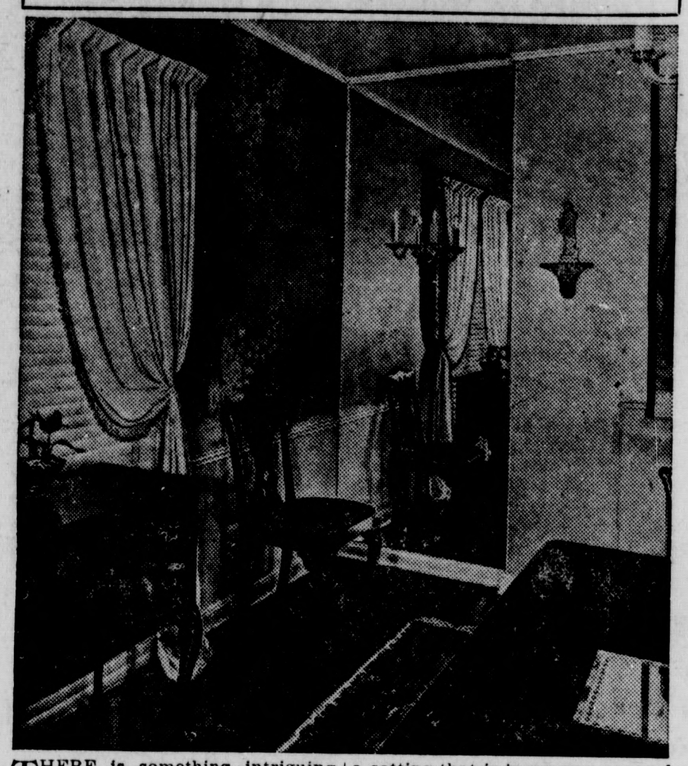
Two monstrous dragons were made in China especially for use at the California World's Fair on Treasure Island.

MIRRORS FOR VISTAS



THERE is something intriguing about a vista, whether it be from a window, a mountain top or merely a glimpse of one room viewed from another. The trick is in the scenic effect that proves a magnet to the eye. This is particularly true within the home where suggestions of rooms beyond can be made to touch off with glamour a setting that is in no way unusual.

Illustrated is a case in point, a dining room where a floor to ceiling panel of mirrored plate glass reflects a window group and suggests a second room. The panel was installed over a little used door at a moderate cost. Yet with this simple installation the whole room was enriched.

Burns Mantle Praises All-Negro Musical Drama

Burns Mantel, the famous New York drama critic visiting the West on a lecture tour, gave high praise to the all-Negro musical drama, "Run Little Chillun," which is now in its eleventh week at the Alcazar theatre.

"I was favorably impressed by the production," Mr. Mantle told Charles P. Teevin, Northern California director for the Federal Theatre project, which produced the popular play.

Meanwhile, other thousands of Exposition visitors are flocking to the Alcazar theatre to see "Run Little Chillun." Many large parties from out-of-town high schools and civic groups have been booked to see the play within the next few weeks.

The long run at the Alcazar is setting a box-office record here for Federal theatre productions.

How Long Is Your Automobile?

Just imagine how it would feel to drive a car six times as long as the one you now drive! Yet that is exactly what happens when you drive at 30 miles an hour—because a car is just as long as its stopping distance, the National Safety council says in a bulletin to motorists.

When you drive 30 miles an hour, just keep in mind that your car stretches out 100 feet ahead of you. You couldn't possibly avoid anything that popped out in front of you in less than that distance. At 40 miles an hour, that distance lengthens out to 164 feet. The faster you go, the longer your car becomes. In other words, if you can only be sure of the road being clear 70 feet ahead, it isn't safe to go 30 miles an hour.

Keep your speed down to the point where you're sure you can stop within the assured clear distance ahead. This is one of the most important rules in safe driving.

After being treated for a badly lacerated ear and several cuts and bruises, Dykman was returned to his home Tuesday evening, where he must remain in bed for some time, recuperating from the shock.

ODDITIES AT THE FAIR

NEW YORK—Here are a few strikingly unusual things you will find at the New York World's Fair 1939:

A parachute tower from which visitors may "bail out" at an elevation of 250 feet and be sure of a "happy landing."

Revolving "magic carpets" from which you may look down as from a height of two miles upon "The City of Tomorrow" inside the 200-foot Perisphere.

The Carrell-Lindbergh mechanical heart, reproducing the action of the human organ.

"Steve Brodie" jumping six times a day from a reproduction of the Brooklyn Bridge.

The most valuable wheat field for its size in the world in full growth.

Spring Chicken Can Now Be Frequent Event

Mass Merchandising Makes Former Luxury Items As Cheap As Ordinary Meats

It was not so long ago that spring chicken—or any other kind of chicken for that matter—was an item reserved for Sunday and special occasions. Fried or broiled chicken was a culinary event in the household and mother usually made up for the extravagance by skimping on the other meals for the rest of the week.

Today, as a result of mass merchandising, owners of chicken farms are assured of a steady market for their products and fryers and broilers are so modestly priced that chicken frequently proves more economical than beef or lamb. And certainly fried chicken turns any ordinary dinner into a special event.

So why not try out a new chicken recipe or two during the week, since you can be sure of finding fresh killed chickens at budget prices in your neighborhood store.

Here is an old southern recipe that is sure to make a hit.

Fried Chicken in Cream Gravy

Ingredients:
Two frying chickens
Fat for frying
Flour
Bunch of parsley
Salt, pepper and paprika
Two cups of milk
Butter size of a walnut

Have the chickens cut up for frying. Season well with salt, pepper and paprika and roll each piece in flour. Have ready a skillet of deep fat that is not quite at the smoking point. Drop the chicken in and fry until golden brown, lowering fire under the skillet as soon as the juices are sealed in. Remove from skillet and drain on paper towels. Melt butter and mix with tablespoon of flour. Drain all fat from skillet in which chicken was fried but leave the small bits of browned flour which have become dislodged from chicken. Heat milk in skillet, add butter and flour and stir until the milk thickens. Arrange chicken on a platter, pour over the milk, which should be the consistency of Grade A cream. Decorate with sprigs of parsley and serve.

Civic Progress By Mayor Selmi

Paul G. Selmi

Figures compiled, as the result of our municipal bus survey, have exceeded far beyond our estimates. A Daly City Municipal bus line is now assured, barring any obstacle beyond our control.

We realize that the present proposed route is not entirely satisfactory but it is a move forward. We shall extend it as finances permit. At present we can only afford the purchase of two busses, which will allow an approximate 15 minute schedule. In order to make the route more convenient to commuters additional busses must be purchased to maintain a 15 minute schedule. Before this can be done the present proposal shall remain until revenues from this project build up a fund sufficient to finance future extensions.

The following facts are stated based on some of the comments sent in on our survey cards.

Taxes will not be increased because of this project.

Better services for all districts shall be the policy in the management of our transportation system.

Every effort shall be made to establish new routes so that all may take advantage of better transportation.

I wish to express the appreciation of the members of the city council for the enthusiastic response given to the Daly City Municipal Bus Survey, by the people of Daly City.

Louis Johnson, who was injured recently when he fell five floors on the new city hall job, is reported suffering a broken vertabra.

Payroll on Daly City's new city hall job has exceeded the $17,000 figure.

Maybe Your Business Needs An Easter Outfit

Milady isn't the only one who should be thinking of a gay spring outfit these days. Every business needs to spruce up to keep in tune with the atmosphere of spring.

One of the best ways to "dress up" a business is to put some life and "punch" into the printed matter which represents the firm in the public eye. What do your business cards look like? Getting a bit dog-eared? Is that throw-away job "just ordinary" or does it really tell your sales story in attractive form?

The public is eye-conscious these days and unattractive or antiquated material just doesn't stand a chance. Insure attention—order good, up-to-date printing.

Romance and Tradition In Blue Grass Film

"Kentucky" Due Here With Fine Cast Of Hollywood Stars

In the belief that millions of Americans are loyal and enthusiastic followers of the sport of kings—without actually knowing much about the sport, or the kings either, for that matter—Hollywood has now turned out a picture which is said to be the last word on the subject.

It is Twentieth Century-Fox's Technicolor production, "Kentucky," scheduled to open Sunday at the Daly City theatre, with a cast headed by Loretta Young and Richard Greene, and including (among its more temperamental players) some of the finest thoroughbreds of American turfdom.

Announced as a great romantic story, centering on two of those proud families who for three generations have fostered one of the finest traditions of horse breeding and racing that the world has ever known, "Kentucky" reveals all the luxuriant beauty of the Blue Grass country in its natural state—for it was there that many of the scenes were filmed, according to Darryl F. Zanuck, Twentieth Century-Fox's astute production chief.

Looking at newsreels of a horse race, Zanuck was struck by the appalling contrast between black and white photography and the actual race as he had seen it. The brilliant hues of the jockeys' silks, the crowds, the colorful sheen of the thoroughbreds, the indescribable beauty of the Kentucky countryside itself—all were lost, Zanuck felt, in the lack of chromatic variation.

He decided then and there that the only way to do justice to the sport of kings was to present it in the jewel hues of Technicolor. He already had a story in mind—John Taintor Foote's novel, "The Look of Eagles." His next step was to pick David Butler to direct the film.

With Loretta Young and Richard Greene to play the romantic leads (chosen because of their excellent work together in "Four Men And A Prayer") and with Walter Brennan in the top character role, initial filming took place in Kentucky. During the five weeks the company was on location, Director Butler shot the last running of the Kentucky Derby, the first time it has ever been filmed in natural color. And the first time the Derby is seen in color will be in the thrilling climax of "Kentucky."

Second big attraction on the new bill will be "The Young In Heart," starring Janet Gaynor, Billie Burke and Douglas Fairbanks, jr.

Beautiful girls were provided as models in the candid camera contest for amateur photographers at the California World's Fair.

School pupils from Oregon and Nevada, as well as California, bought books of tickets to the California World's Fair for group visits to Treasure Island.

Beautiful girls selling flowers at outdoor stands, as they do in San Francisco, are a feature at the California World's Fair.

Loretta Young and Walter Brennan enjoy some of the comfortable elegance and tradition characteristic of life in the Blue Grass State, in "Kentucky" which plays at the Daly City theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, March 26, 27 and 28.

CCC Enrollment Period Opens Apr. 1

April 1-20, 1939, has been designated for the regular quarterly Civilian Conservation Corps enrollment period.

Continued improvements in camp conditions, educational facilities, job-training programs and job instruction has aroused interest in the corps to such an extent that during the past several quarterly enrollment periods there have been upwards of 2000 surplus eligible applicants not called because of limited openings available in the camps.

Inasmuch as the April enrollment will be for a larger than usual number of men and because of the fact that all applications must be investigated to determine eligibility, it is anticipated that there will be a rush during the April enrollment period and it is therefore suggested that any young man between the ages of 17 and 23 inclusive, a citizen of the United States, unemployed and in need of employment and of good moral and physical standard who is interested in taking advantage of this opportunity to enroll, submit his application to the selecting agent in his county at once in order to allow necessary time for clearance. In San Mateo county the CCC Selecting Agent is Miss June Mahon whose address is 430 Peninsula avenue, San Mateo, California.

Lagoons and fountains at the California World's Fair all contain water which is deep blue in color—because it is dyed to make it fit the Exposition color scheme.

Robert Young, famed film star, previewed Treasure Island just before the World's Fair of the West opened, and decided he'd spend a week at the Exposition to be able to see it all.

Measles Prevalent In San Mateo County

Three hundred fifty-five cases of measles have been reported in San Mateo county in the past three weeks, according to a summary released this week by the department of public health and welfare. For the week of March 11, 141 new cases were reported.

For the same week four cases of smallpox were reported, two in Redwood City and two in the city's suburban area.

Greenwich Village Hailed As Climax

Greenwich Village, now hailed as "the climax of the Gayway" on Treasure Island, has emerged in the first week of its opening as a miniature Gayway in itself with beautiful girlhood as its central theme.

A gala girl show with "100 Calipigian beauties 100" is the main attraction of "the village" closely followed by "Zorima and her nudist colony." Other magnets in the enclosure, which embraces a total of 34,000 square feet are "Temptation," depicting living models, classes in life in which the general public receives lessons in charcoal sketches with professional models posing, novel dance numbers, a flea circus, and various other entertaining novelties, plus food specialties, spaghetti dishes, chile concarne cones and refreshments.

Bob Worth and his masters of melody furnish the orchestral renditions accompanying the girl shows.

More than 20,000 visitors crowded "Greenwich Village" during the first two days of its opening. Nearly 400 people are employed within Greenwich Village which is a replica of the original "Greenwich Village of New York."

Religious services will be held by practically every creed in the Temple of Religion at the California World's Fair during the 41 Sundays of the Exposition.

United Air Lines List Summer Schedules

Summer schedules to and from Los Angeles were in effect at Mills Field this week as United Air Lines listed seven flights on the coast run and cut flying time to two hours.

United also reported that traffic on the Pacific coast has increased 26 per cent since the opening of the exposition, which has likewise increased traffic on the New York-San Francisco route 300,000 flying miles a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Christopher, Flood avenue, San Francisco, entertained at bridge Saturday evening.
